NOTES

INTRODUCTION

This is the final issue of this publication. The ABS is developing an electronic key statistics series based on selected economic and social information previously included in the Monthly Summary of Statistics, Queensland (cat. no. 1304.3) publication. This series will appear on the ABS web site <<http://www.abs.gov.au>>.

Statistics shown in this publication are the latest available at the time of preparation. In a number of cases, figures appearing in this summary are preliminary and are subject to revision in subsequent issues. Reference should therefore always be made to the latest issue or to the statistical publication on the specific subject when figures are not shown.

All tables refer to Queensland, unless otherwise specified.

Current publications and other products released by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) are listed in the Catalogue of Publications and Products, (cat. no. 1101.0). The Catalogue is available from any ABS office or the ABS web site <<http://www.abs.gov.au>>. The ABS also issues a daily Release Advice on the web site which details products to be released in the week ahead.

EFFECTS OF ROUNDING

Where figures have been rounded, discrepancies may occur between totals and the sums of the component items.

(a) All ERPs from September quarter 1996 to June quarter 2001 are revised, based on the results of the 2001 Census.

(b) Excess of births over deaths.

(c) Components of population change (natural increase, net overseas and net interstate migration) have not been revised. It is intended that these components will be finalised with the release of 2001 Census based final ERPs in the September quarter 2002 issue of Australian Demographic Statistics (cat. no. 3101.0).

(d) The rates represent the increase during the period, expressed as a proportion of the population at the beginning of the period.

(a) Imports relate to the state in which the import entry was lodged with the Australian Customs Service. Foreign import data are compiled using the Standard International Trade Classification (Revision 3).

(b) These are selected major groups only and therefore do not add to the totals shown. Imports are recorded statistically in the calendar month in which the import entries are both finalised by the Australian Customs Service and passed to the ABS for further processing.

(c) Excluding non-merchandise trade.

(d) Manufactured goods not included in the other selected commodity groups listed in this table.
